2018 BFSU-WANHUIDA IP MOOT COURT COMPETITION

INVITATION

Beijing Foreign Studies University, School of Law is proudly announcing that “The 2018 BFSU-WANHUIDA Intellectual Property Moot Court Competition” will be held on May 26 and 27 (Saturday and Sunday), 2018 on the BFSU campus. The Organizing Committee cordially invites you to send a team to take part in this high-level international event along with other participants from law schools.

As we have successfully done before, the Competition aims at promoting IP education, enhancing educational exchange among students and corporate personnel, and increasing awareness of cutting-edge issues of great interest both academically and socially.

This high-level Competition will be conducted by the panels of internationally renowned specialists, legal scholars and experienced judges, and is open to university students. The Competition will be entirely in English, in respect of written briefs and oral arguments.

To join the Competition, please complete the attached Application Form and return it to us before March 31, 2018. Each participating organization may form one team, comprising 2~4 members and a coach.

Please log on to the BFSU Law School website for further information and reference materials.
